

The Working Group in Feminism and History Presents:

A TALK WITH DR. FELICIA KORNBLOUH

Friday, February 16th
3:30-5 PM at UNC's Love House
410 E Franklin Street, Chapel Hill NC

A Woman's Life Is a Human Life is the story of the movements that transformed the politics of reproductive rights: the fight to decriminalize abortion and the campaign against sterilization abuse, at a time when sterilization was disproportionately proposed as birth control to Black, Latinx, and poor women.

Please join fellow Triangle students and faculty for a Q&A and reception following the talk.

Dr. Felicia Kornbluh is a writer, activist, and professor who specializes in the histories of feminism, gender, social welfare, and reproductive politics. She is Professor of History at the University of Vermont, with appointments in Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies, and Jewish Studies.
